

About American Debt Counseling (ADC)

ADC is a nationally recognized non-profit organization headquartered in Sunrise, Florida that provides credit counseling, debt management, and financial education services. Since opening its doors in 2001, ADC has helped thousands of people to regain control of their debt and build a strong financial future.

Our Employment Philosophy

ADC is built on the philosophy that our employees are our #1 asset. We provide our employees with a fun, friendly, rewarding family atmosphere. If you're looking to work in the credit counseling industry, this is the place to be. ADC offers a culturally diverse environment where employees learn, grow as individuals and work toward a common goal - the success of the company.

Our company has experienced tremendous growth and continues to expand. In 2001, we began with just two employees and now have a talented team of 60 great people. We are seeking qualified, highly motivated individuals who will help us realize additional growth.

Employee Benefits:

How ADC Cares about its People

ADC believes employee benefits should reflect how the company treats its team members with respect and fairness, which positively enforces a feeling of pride and camaraderie amongst all of its employees.

- Recognition program honoring Employee of the Month
- Recognition program honoring Employee of the Year
- Competitive salaries with weekly paychecks
- Company subsidized health, dental, and vision plans
- Paid vacation, sick and personal time off

Build Your Career

- Company supports professional development
- Company paid computer classes
- Company paid certifications
- Company paid telemarketing licenses
- Company paid ESL (English as a Second Language) classes

Promoting from Within

ADC has a strong tradition of promoting our employees to higher positions of responsibility because we value extended service to the company.

“We spend 40 hours a week or a third of our lives here. I don’t want anyone saying that ‘I hate having to go to that #@%ing job today.’”

- Alan Silverberg, CEO and Owner

For more information on how you can join the American Debt Counseling Family, please call 954-656-8080, email hr@myadc.org or visit us at www.myadc.org .